

A Fortunate Day

Today, I went to the park to walk and play with my adorable puppy, Fluffy. The sun was shiny, leaves and flowers had started to bloom. 'What a lovely day.' I thought to myself. I guess I was too into my thoughts because Fluffy was already waiting for me at the park entrance. 'Good boy!' I said and patted his head as we walked into the park.

While I was enjoying the perfect day and playing with Fluffy, I noticed a dark figure lurking at the entrance. I didn't think much about it and just carried on. Suddenly, the figure jumped out of the shadows and pointed a knife at me! 'Give me all your money, or else.....' He sneered. I was shocked and scared. I guess there was no hope for me to escape this robbery. I was about to hand him my wallet, when Fluffy charged at the robber and left with a pretty nasty dog bite.

The robber fell to the floor in pain, clenching his leg. Out of anger, he tried to grab Fluffy, but I scooped Fluffy up and dashed as fast as my legs could carry me. As I turned the corner, I was sure I got rid of him, then I quickly dialed 999.

I was so lucky to have Fluffy with me. I was super thankful. I will never forget he saved my life.
